Annie,

The Defendant showed up in court today and then thought better of that decision and took off. The Judge defaulted him so you don't need to be in Suffolk tomorrow. The judge tried saying that we would start the trial once he is picked up, but I don't see that happening since I don't imagine he will be located right away. I will let you know once we get a new trial date. Thanks.

Annie,

As of right now, we are scheduled to empanel tomorrow [REDACTED]? How is your schedule looking for Wednesday. If you are available, I will do my best to accommodate any time constraints to the best of my ability. If possible, could you let me know by @ 1 pm tomorrow so that I may inform the court accordingly? Thanks.

Hi Matt,

I have cc'd the Lab Supervisor in this email to address the matter of re-testing of samples.

Chuck, at your convenience, could you please address this situation?

Thanks.

Annie,

I looked over ther file and it appears that you were the confirmatory tester. That could be a problem at trial without having the primary. What would be your best guess as to how long it would take to have the items retested?

Matt,

Stacey has left the Drug Lab in Feb and is unavailable to testify.

As for my schedule that week, I have no idea at this time. But put me On Call and we will figure it put.

Thanks.

Annie

Stacey / Annie,

Two summonses were faxed to you today for a trial that is scheduled to start on May 10, 2011 in Suffolk Superior. The case pertains to [REDACTED] I expect that your testimony would most likely be required on May 11, but could possibly be on May 12. When you get a chance, would you please let me know how your schedules are looking for those days? I will do my best to accomodate your schedules and will call witnesses out of order if necessary. Thanks.
